ST AUGUSTINE'S PARISH VISION STATEMENT

St Augustine's Parish is a community striving to be Christ to one another and to welcome and serve the Christ in those around us. ALL SAINTS – YEAR A

31st October & 1st November 2020

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

Let us all rejoice in the Lord, as we celebrate the feast day in honour of all the Saints, at whose festival the Angels rejoice and praise the Son of God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Response: Lord, this is the people that longs to see your face.

The Lord's is the earth and its fullness, the world and all its peoples. It is he who set it on the seas; on the waters he made it firm. R

Who shall climb the mountain of the Lord? Who shall stand in his holy place? The man with clean hands and pure heart, who desires not worthless things. R

He shall receive blessings from the Lord and reward from the God who saves him. Such are the men who seek him, seek the face of the God of Jacob. R

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!

Come to me, all you that labour and are burdened, and I will give you rest, says the Lord.

Alleluia!

PARISH PRAYER

Lord God, may we, as St Augustine's Parish, be a united and welcoming community recognising the need for Christ in our lives and serving the Christ in others. May we, as community, continue to face challenges together serving and supporting individuals and our families through our own personal efforts and our parish support groups. Guide us with your patient love. Fill us with your infinite Wisdom. Pour out your rich blessings upon us as we reach out to one another to fulfil our spiritual and pastoral needs as One in Christ, in community, and in faith, hope and love. AMEN.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

Blessed are the clean of heart, for they shall see God. Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called children of God. Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Thoughts from the Presbytery

FEASTS OF THE WEEK

Sun: All Saints
Mon: All Souls' Day
Wed: Saint Charles Borromeo

All baptized Christians who have died and are now with God in glory are considered saints. All Saints Day honours the memory of countless unknown and uncanonised saints who have no feast day. November is a special time to pray for the dead, Monday being All Souls' Day. There will be Mass this Monday at 9am and a Requiem Mass for Fred Leslie at 12:30pm.

Dr. Trevor and Alison D'Netto have accepted the role to monitor all Covid-19 requirements for Yass/Murrumbateman. We have had a few issues in recent times and it is critical all parishioners adhere to the recommendations of NSW Health. Cath Byrnes overseas the Gunning community and Dick Courtney is in charge of registrations.

Just a reminder of the pastoral visit of Archbishop Prowse, November 12th at 10am. It will be held in the Lovat Chapel, beginning with a short time in prayer followed by morning tea. He will be asking parishioners how they have dealt with Covid-19. All are welcome and for catering purposes please indicate if you will be coming.

St. Augustine's Finance Committee will meet on the 10th November. Due to finances across the Archdiocese, the stipend and living allowances of priests needs to be reduced significantly.

Saints in the making

There is a patron saint for almost every situation you could imagine. When we've lost something, we talk to St Anthony; faced with a hopeless situation, we pray to St Jude. We ask St Christopher to help with a safe journey, and St Cajetan to intercede for a job interview. As we discovered this year, there are even patron saints for pandemics – St Edmund and St Roch. The list goes on. Many people have a favourite saint they reach out to in times of need.

There is something about the saints that touches even the most cynical of hearts. Turning to a favourite saint is more than mere superstition. At its most basic level it is a reminder that we are not alone, that there is a life beyond this one and we are connected to it. At a deeper level it is an opportunity to reflect on these holy women and men who were shining examples of faith and virtue while alive, and who continue their great work by leading us closer to God.

This All Saints Day, the Beatitudes challenge us to look beyond the difficulties of this life and see the bigger picture. They offer a way of life that leads to eternal life. The saints whose help we seek embodied many of the qualities of the Beatitudes – gentleness, mercy, fighting for justice, working for peace, bearing suffering with dignity. We all know people who embody these qualities – the many saints who may never be canonised but who show us how to live as followers of Christ. As we reflect on those who have gone before us, it leads us to ponder how we are doing: are we saints in the making?

'To be saints is not a privilege for the few, but a vocation for everyone.'

We Are God's Children Now

Matthew's Sermon on the Mount is one of the best-loved passages in Christianity. It inhabits the ranks of great world literature, transcending credal boundaries. If the teachings of Jesus could be shrunk into a dozen verses, these would serve quite well. Everything Jesus taught - and lived - is right here.

So what does this sermon have to say? Those whom the world despises enjoy God's greatest blessings. Note that it doesn't say what we sometimes expect to hear: that 'someday' the poor will be blessed. No: they're blessed right now, in their poverty. And the people crying now are blessed. The kids bullied in schoolyards today are blessed. Those treated unjustly are immersed in blessings. This isn't some form of spiritual delayed gratification. The blessings are real and immediate. Righting these wrongs comes later. But the blessings are here now.

How have you been blessed in the precise hour of your greatest suffering?

Join the saints in their blessed work of intercession. Commit to being a healing, forgiving, consoling presence to those around you.

(GPBS eNews)

We need to take the shortcuts practiced by three St. Teresas:

- i) St. Teresa of Avila: Recharge your spiritual batteries every day by prayer, namely, listening to God and talking to Him
- ii) St. Therese of Lisieux: Convert every action into prayer by offering it to God for His glory and for the salvation of souls and by doing God's will to the best of your ability.
- iii) St. Teresa of Calcutta (Mother Teresa): Do ordinary things with great love. Do something beautiful for God.

SUPPORT POPE FRANCIS' MESSAGE FOR A JUST RESPONSE ON COVID AND THE CLIMATE EMERGENCY

#ShareNotPlunder

#StandWithPopeFrancis

www.standwithpopefrancis.org

On the eve of the Season of Creation, Pope Francis issued a profound prayer intention that the planet's resources will not be plundered but shared in a just and respectful manner. He prays that today, not tomorrow, we will take care of Creation. Pope Francis' leadership on the climate emergency and on the coronavirus has been unmatched.

But he can't do it alone.

It's time for the global Catholic community to rally behind his message.

For that reason, we are inviting Catholics to sign the Petition for just action on COVID and the Climate Emergency, showing the Pope and the world that we care about creation.

COMMUNION REFLECTION

We need to walk the walk:

On the feast of All Saints, the Church invites and challenges us to walk the walk of the saints and not just talk the talk: "Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the Kingdom of Heaven, but only the one who does the will of my Father in Heaven" (Mt 7:21). 2) The feast gives us an occasion to thank God for having invited so many of our ancestors to join the company of the saints. May our reflection on the heroic lives of the saints and the imitation of their lifestyle enable us to hear from our Lord the words of grand welcome to eternal bliss: "Well done, good and faithful servant! Enter into the joys of your master" (Mt 25:21).
