PARISH PRAYER

Lord God, may we, as St Augustine's Parish, be a united and welcoming community recognising the need for Christ in our lives and serving the Christ in others. May we, as community, continue to face challenges together serving and supporting individuals and our families through our own personal efforts and our parish support groups. Guide us with your patient love. Fill us with your infinite Wisdom. Pour out your rich blessings upon us as we reach out to one another to fulfil our spiritual and pastoral needs as One in Christ, in community, and in faith, hope and love. AMEN.

HOMILY

Transfigured Bodysouls

One often hears the conventional wisdom: 'All religions are the same.' Somewhat different packaging but, really, they all believe in the same things.

But, do they, even about the human person?

What if you believed that the most vital part of a person was 'the soul', more or less trapped or imprisoned in the body? The best thing would be for the soul to be freed from the body, leaving the old carcass behind, and enjoying heaven as a soul.

Well, that may put you in an ancient Greek tradition, but it is certainly not Christian.

What do we believe?

There is a hint in the pictures of the Stations of the Cross. Notice the haloes of light, a golden glow, around the head of our Lord Jesus Christ. Artists down through the centuries have tried to portray the Divine Light which suffuses the body of Christ (and of the Saints).

These portrayals hark back to today's Gospel.

Jesus' body was transfigured. This was no out-of-the-body experience of religious ecstasy. This was an utterly bodily experience with Jesus' body totally translucent, totally radiant with Divine Light. Every molecule of his materiality was reverberating in the halo of divine glory.

That is the destiny which God desires for us also. When we are really in harmony with God, when we really participate in the life of God, then that Divine Life envelops and permeates our whole person, bodysoul. That is our ultimate destiny, but can it be anticipated in the lives of those close to God?

We have all heard of St Francis of Assisi or Padre Pio. Both saints exhibited the stigmata. Their devotion to the crucified Lord was so intense that they exhibited the wounds of the Cross in their bodies.

But, what if a saint, what if you or I, was intensely devoted to the transfigured Christ? Could one share in that transfigured experience?

Here is a story from the Russian mystical tradition.* It is a passage taken from 'The Revelations' of Saint Seraphim of Sarov, written at the beginning of the 19th Century. One of his followers was conversing with him on a winter morning when the Saint appeared to his follower to be as dazzling as the sun. Saint Seraphim whispered to him:

'Why then, my friend, do you not look me straight in the face? Look freely and without fear; the Lord is with us.'

The story goes on in the words of the follower:

'Encouraged by these words, I looked and was seized by holy fear. Imagine in the middle of the sun, dazzling in the brilliance of its noontide rays, the face of the man who is speaking to you. You can see the movements of his lips, the changing expression of his eyes, you can hear his voice, you can feel his hands holding you by the shoulders, but you can see neither his hands nor his body – nothing except the blaze of light which shines around, lighting up with its brilliance the snow-covered meadow, and the snowflakes which continue to fall unceasingly.

"What do you feel?" asked Father Seraphim.

"An immeasurable well-being," I replied.

"But what sort of well-being? What exactly?"

"I feel", I replied, "such calm, such peace in my soul, that I can find no words to express it."

"My friend, it is the peace our Lord spoke of when he said to his disciples: 'My peace I give unto you,' the peace which the world cannot give; 'the peace which passeth all understanding.' What else do you feel?"

"Infinite joy in my heart."

My friends, that is the promise our Heavenly Father gives to you and to me personally and individually.

You and I can be, with God's grace will be, radiant with Divine Light, our bodies immersed in translucent glory, filled with 'immeasurable well-being', 'infinite joy in our hearts.'

* I took this story from 'The Mystical Theology of the Eastern Church' by Vladimir Lossky, St Vladimir's Seminary Press, Crestwood, New York 10707, 1976, pages 227-229.

COMMUNION REFLECTION

All of us can experience moments of great joy because in his goodness God allows us to taste on earth the joys of the world to come. However, moments of joy, no matter how wonderful, will never satisfy the human heart. What we long for is a permanent state of happiness. But that is unattainable here. So what must we do? Like desert travellers, we must go forward from one oasis to another, with the conviction that God has a homeland prepared for us at the end of the journey. This conviction will make it possible for us to travel onwards with an ache in our hearts and an unquenchable longing in our souls.
